Infant Activities

Creative Expression

Standard: Focus attention on interesting sight or sounds, often in shared experiences with adults

React to stimulation in the environment. This includes drawings, sculptures or painting

Pointing Power -It's not polite to point – unless you're a baby (or playing with a baby)! Carry your baby around and point to different objects and things while saying what they are. Even if your baby isn't showing signs of speaking or making many sounds yet, he is listening and observing as you speak. Point to things and ask, "What's this?" You'll be amazed one day when he is able to answer you

Sign Language

Standard:

Remember language heard repeatedly in stories, poems, and interactive language experiences

Sign the word Thank You:

Sensory

String Along - You can turn just about toy into a pull-along toy. Simply attach a piece of yarn or a shoelace to your baby's toy truck or the arm of his stuffed animal and encourage your little one to give it a tug. He'll be delighted to see the effect of pulling his toy on a string! As he begins to crawl, put the string just out of his reach so that he has to move to grab it and reel-in his toy

Music and Movement

Standard:

Respond to music by joining in on one or two words in a song or moving physically upon hearing a familiar melody or rhythm
